Who is Miss Rodeo Florida/Miss Teen Rodeo Florida?

Miss Rodeo Florida/Miss Teen Rodeo Florida symbolizes the youth of our State who wish to further promote the sport of professional rodeo and western way of life. She is the ideal, western type American girl, and is the person who will represent professional rodeo as she travels our state and country.

What does it mean to be Miss Rodeo Florida/Miss Teen Rodeo Florida?

While spreading good will for her community, her state, and her country, Miss Rodeo Florida/Miss Teen Rodeo Florida is garnering the richest experience of her life and laying a solid foundation for her future. She may receive a scholarship to help further her education along with gifts, donations, and accessories.

The value of Miss Rodeo Florida/Miss Teen Rodeo Florida to her home state is limitless.

During her reign, she is the state's Official Representative of the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association, and should constantly be aware of those values of public relations between the general public and those actively involved in pro rodeo. It is her responsibility to improve the image of rodeo to all with whom she comes in contact. The experience gained as she travels across her state, and perhaps other parts of the country, can be one, which will enrich her life in countless ways.

About Miss Rodeo Florida Princess/Miss Rodeo Florida Sweetheart?

The Miss Rodeo Florida Princess/Sweetheart titles are designed as a stepping stone in a young lady's life to prepare her for future rodeo queen titles and responsibilities. The best way to learn is by hands-on experience shadowing the senior Miss and Teen and will follow the same guidelines and rules as the Miss Rodeo Florida/Miss Teen Rodeo Florida Contestants.

What type of young lady does the Miss Rodeo Florida/Miss Teen Rodeo Florida Pageant attract?

- The young lady who wishes to be a leader in her community, and further promote the western way of life on a local, state, and national basis.
- The young lady who loves horses and everything they represent, and who wants to show the rest of the world what can be accomplished while surrounded by this environment.
- The young lady who wants to act as an official representative of professional rodeo, portraying good sportsmanship and high moral and ethical character, and reflecting careful and humane treatment of animals. She should understand the sport of rodeo in its entirety, enough to be able to explain and "sell" rodeo to anyone with whom she may come in contact, and be able to speak intelligently, with dignity and sincere interest in rodeo. She should realize that the Miss Rodeo Florida/Miss Teen Rodeo Florida Pageant is not a beauty pageant. However, she should act, speak, and dress according to the prestige the title deserves.
- The ambitious young lady who is interested in furthering her chosen career.

How can a young woman become Miss Rodeo Florida/Miss Teen Rodeo Florida?

2. Judge #1s score will break the tie for category winners, Appearance, Personality, Speech and Horsemanship. If a tie still remains, Judge #2s score will be used . . . and so on until the tie is broken. A tie for Miss Congeniality will be broken by the second balloting by contestants. A tie for Miss Rodeo Florida/Miss Teen Rodeo Florida and runners-up will be broken by the horsemanship scores; the contestant with the highest score in horsemanship will receive the higher ranking.

Judge's Score Sheets:

Each judge will place his/her score sheets in a manila envelope, seal the envelope, and sign his/her name across the flap. The judge's chaperone will collect the score sheets after each scored section and keep them safe until such time as the accountants can retrieve them and tabulate them in private.

PAGEANT DIVISIONS:

A. APPEARANCE: The purpose of this judged division is to select the young lady who rates highest in:

1. Attractiveness
2. Grooming: to include neatness and cleanliness in every detail, such as complexion, hands, fingernails, hair, hat, boots, and other wearing apparel. Meticulous care in general grooming is essential for a young lady to be considered as Miss Rodeo Florida/Miss Teen Rodeo Florida.
3. Photogenic Quality: Judges will have a head and shoulder picture to study of each contestant. A young lady's strength of character and personality are reflected strongly in a wholesome appearance.

4. Poise and Posture: Lady like behavior in every situation.
5. Knowledge of Proper Western Attire: Contestants should be aware of what is fashionable western dress, with particular attention given to color coordination (contestants should know how the use of various color combinations can enhance appearance and eye appeal). Judges will be observing how a contestant's clothes fit and suit her form and personality.
6. Contestants are expected to appear in: Full western attire, at all times, unless otherwise specified. All outfits should include western hat, boots, and belt. Hat shapes are looked at so go to someone knowledgeable to fit your face.
7. It is mandatory that contestants wear WRANGLER® pant products whenever they are in pants.
8. Dresses, skirts, and blouses should reflect a western image. Dresses must be Knee/Tea or Floor Length. Garments and accessories must exhibit a western image.
9. It is not necessary to invest in an excessive amount of expensive clothing. Judges will be looking for versatility and imagination displayed by the contestants.
10. Contestants should be knowledgeable on current trends in western wear manufacturing.

B. HORSEMANSHIP: the purpose of this division is to select the young lady who rates highest in:

1. Horsemanship: Control of the horse and the way the contestant handles each situation that may occur.
2. Balance: Ability to sit steady in a saddle.
3. Positions: of hands, feet, and seat.
4. Mounting and dismounting.
5. Understanding and skill of the contestant will be judged and not the horse.
6. MRF/MTRF: There will be two go-rounds of the horsemanship competition. MRF contestants will draw from provided stock horses for both rounds. MTRF will provide their own mount and tack and will not switch during competition. Teens horses may not be brought onto the McCormick property until noon on September 7th and may not have the use of their stalls during the competition so be prepared to tie up to your rigs. Round One will be rail work, with a flag run presented at the end of this judging event. Round Two will use one of the three patterns as included in this book, will include a dismount and mount, and will end with a queens run. The Judges will draw the pattern used and you will be advised at Orientation. At the discretion of the Judges, patterns may be altered. Any changes and/or alterations to the horsemanship patterns will be announced to the contestants before the horsemanship competition begins. The patterns will be demonstrated by the reigning Miss Rodeo Florida/Miss Teen Rodeo Florida. All horses entering the Equestrian Facility grounds are required to have a current health inspection and Coggins test.
7. Horse and tack: MRF contestants will draw from provided stock horses for both rounds. Those horses will have tack already on them and staff will help you fit your stirrups. MTRF will provide their own mount and will provide their own tack. As in rodeo, contestants will draw for the order in which she competes.
8. No Stalls for horses: McCormick Research Institute's barns are full with Business Horses and horses Boarded for training. They will not have stalls available for your horses at this event. We are working on locating a local place to help.
9. Injury or illness: which will not allow a horse to work, will require veterinarian certification and will then be reported to the horsemanship director who will determine whether the horse can be taken from the grounds and another horse approved for the contestant. For safety reasons, studs will not be allowed.
10. Restrictions: MRF/MTRF - There will NOT be any parents, relatives, friends, boyfriends, trainers, and etc. allowed in the horsemanship area during the competition. Also, there will be No One on and/or warming up the contestants' horses. If so, contestant will be disqualified. (Lunging the horse is allowed)
11. Dress for horsemanship, MRF/MTRF only - Wrangler® pant product of your choice, solid colored long sleeved western shirt, any color /unembellished. Shirt must be tucked in. Western boots and cowboy hat. No vests or jackets. All riding attire should be neat and fit properly. Minimum jewelry should be worn. Showmanship should be considered, since a contestant's personality does project from horseback to the audience and judges. No Chaps.
12. Spurs: Teen Contestants will be allowed the use of spurs during horsemanship on their own horse. Spurs will not be allowed on draw horses. (FYI, Spurs are not allowed in the MRA Pageant.)

C. PERSONALITY: the purpose of this division is to select the young lady who rates highest in:

1. Intelligence: Good common sense.
2. Education: Ability to speak about rodeo and other areas, with special emphasis on grammar and enunciation.
3. Attractiveness: not necessarily to mean beauty in this sense, but rather should note whether the contestant radiates self-confidence without making an issue out of it. To include the contestants' style of attire, overall appearance, magnetism and eye appeal.
4. Personality Reflections: Conversational ability. She should show maturity, high moral standards, sincerity, and integrity.
5. Genuine interest in other people: in the pageant and in rodeo, and a noticeable consideration for others.
6. Self-projection: Ability to project one's personality, whether it is from horseback in an arena, on television, or before an audience. Also, to be considered are sense of humor, showmanship, ambition, desire and enthusiasm.

7. Happy outlook on life in general.
8. Promptness in keeping pageant schedule.
9. Public Appearances- includes public appearances of contestants; giving them an opportunity to speak to an audience with facts and interesting information about their hometown, and/or their state. These appearances may be made at western fashion shows, civic group luncheon programs, evening meetings, banquets, etc. Contestants will be expected to answer questions in at least one of their public appearances, with these questions prepared in advance and drawn by the contestant or a MRF/MTRF pageant official. Some possible subjects include; rodeo terms to define, rodeo events to explain, extemporaneous questions, all of which require the contestant to think on her feet, and show maturity, intelligence, wisdom and imagination.
10. Judges will be provided a copy of the pageant application and photo in advance of the pageant.

Miss Rodeo Florida Pageant Requirements

1. Entry Fees: Miss Rodeo Florida - are $250, Miss Teen Rodeo Florida- are $200, MRF Princess – are $150 and MRF Sweetheart- are $150. Checks must be made out to the MRFA, Inc. All documentation, photographs and FEES must be included in the application and must be postmarked by Wednesday, July 31, 2019 or not valid.
2. Chaperones: The MRF contestants will be under the supervision of the MRF Assoc., Inc., and Pageant Chaperone(s) from the time they arrive until they are signed out by Pageant Officials. The chaperones will escort the contestants to and from all functions during the pageant. Chaperones duties of which will consist of making certain the contestant's schedules and other responsibilities are met. The number of chaperones will depend on the number of contestants – a suggested guideline is one chaperone to every five contestants, with one head chaperone having full responsibility. The Teen, Princess and Sweetheart contestants will follow the same schedule as the participants in the older divisions. They will check-in and depart just as the Miss contestants but they will be under the supervision of their parents when not competing. Parents are responsible for transporting their daughters to functions and be responsible for getting them there on time. While competing, ALL contestants will be seated together and supervised by the Chaperones and some of the pageant committee. However, parents are asked not to approach their daughters until authorized by pageant personnel. We want to be organized as possible. All contact and delivery of needed items, or messages with the MRF/MTRF contestants will be done through the chaperones. Cell phone numbers will be given out during orientation.
3. Parents/Relatives: Parents and relatives of MRF contestants are welcome to attend certain events at which the contestants will be present. However, after pageant begins, contestants cannot communicate with family, friends, or boyfriends unless authorized by the chaperones.
4. Transportation: All transportation needs for MRF contestants to functions shall be provided. Transport of Teen/Princess/Sweethearts will be the responsibility of the parents.
5. Horsemanship: MRF/MTRF contestants - There will NOT be any parents, relatives, friends, boyfriends, trainers, and etc. allowed in the horsemanship area during the competition. Also there will be NO one on and/or warming up the contestants' horses. If so, contestant will be disqualified.
6. Video recording and photography equipment are allowed at the Pageant functions, unless directed otherwise by pageant officials.
7. Judging will take precedence over all pageant activities, beginning at the Orientation meeting for the contestants and continue throughout the pageant.
8. All Contestants will be required to stay together for the duration of the pageant unless there is cause for emergency release. Contestant must receive approval from MRFA, Inc. official before departure.
